Research Interests

High-dimensional data, unsupervised learning, graphical modeling, classification, and empirical Bayes.

Education

University of Washington, Seattle, Washington, U.S.A. Sep 2011 – June 2015

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in Biostatistics

- Advisor: Daniela Witten
- Research Topic: Graph Estimation and Cluster Analysis in High Dimensions

Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana, U.S.A. Aug 2007 – May 2011

Master of Science - Applied Statistics

Bachelor of Science - Actuarial Science & Mathematical Statistics

Honors and Awards

- Best Oral Presentation - runner up, from WNAR, June 2014.
- Best Poster Presentation (as voted by incoming students), from UW Biostatistics, September 2012
- Graduate School Fund for Excellence and Innovation, from University of Washington, July 2012
- College of Science Outstanding Junior in Statistics, from Purdue University, May 2009
- Ruzicka College of Science Research Award, from Purdue University, May 2008

Teaching

Biostatistics 571: Advanced Regression Methods for Correlated Data Winter 2014
Supervised by Adam Szpiro

Referee Service

Biostatistics; Journal of Computational and Graphical Statistics; Journal of the American Statistical Association (Theory and Methods)

Department Service

Admission committee for prospective MS/PhD students (2013-2014)
